Hope you are all prepping for finals week. Tommy, Lynn Mahlburg wanted you to know that she was impressed with the Christmas decorations on the Pahrump site. “A Christmas Carol” has been taking place on campus, if you can attend, it is great! This is a great way to support theater. The Pearl Harbor Honor Dinner was a success, the Veteran’s Resource Center and the Daughters of the American Revolution sponsored this. Food and entertainment were both nice, and this was a public event. Have a good weekend! Please turn in time sheets.

Battle Mountain: Monday we had sock day, people showed us their socks to be entered to win a pair of socks. We made a week out of it with trivia and had a hot cocoa bar with whipped cream, candy canes and marshmallows! Elko: Finished handing out bags and will be handing out prizes from 1:30-5:00 for their Christmas Scavenger Hunt on campus. They had lots of cool prizes like GBC gear, speakers and a wax warmer! Ely: Claim Your Cane was this week, have a few left over. Pahrump:

Potluck was a huge success! Filled the biggest room and had lots of participation. Winnemucca: Game night on Friday, put out decorations.

10. STUDENT SEXUAL CONDUCT AND SAFETY SURVEY INFORMATION

Cathy Fulkerson spoke on sexual conduct survey results. She is coming to SGA to get our opinions on how to move forward with the results of the survey. The main points of the survey were that students were unaware of who to report sexual harassment to and that non-heterosexual sexual students felt as though they were a bigger target. The agenda item was moved to the next meetings agenda for SGA to discuss further, with possibility of a sexual harassment awareness week in February. Pat Anderson sent out the electronic version of the report Cathy gave to our emails.
