2. PUBLIC COMMENT

INFORMATION

President Linville- Great news. SGA Shout Out will be going out to all of the GBC students instead of just specific recipients. There will be a test email going out that has pictures of the SGA newsletter. Alex Porter suggested that we keep the newsletter to those who want to receive it, to eliminate clogging the emails of students.

Pat Anderson- President Helens is putting together task forces for specific things. She is looking to "re-energize" the Elko campus along with the other campuses. There is also a task force pertaining to athletics coming to GBC. A meeting will be held February 7th at 9 a.m. Location to be announced. The community has been invited to join in.

3. APPROVAL OF AGENDA

FOR POSSIBLE ACTION

Treasurer Miller motioned to approve the agenda for January 26th, 2018. Senator Vera seconded. DISCUSSION: Change date on item 4. Correct Senator Garcia's last name to correct spelling. Change spelling of "programming" on item 23. Add zeros to the end of item 19 so the amount reads $50.00. Motion passed unanimously.

4. APPROVAL OF MINUTES

FOR POSSIBLE ACTION

Treasurer Miller motioned to approve the minutes for January 19th, 2018. Senator Johnson seconded. DISCUSSION: Capitalize letters in GEAR UP. Put commas after job titles. Under item 2, change job title to Vice President for Academic Affairs. Remove all first names from agenda items. Add space before item number 10. Motion passed unanimously.

5. PRESIDENT'S REPORT

INFORMATION

President Linville reported that Tanner Ames is interested in the Winnemucca Senator position, but missed the last meeting due to confusion. Please have all agenda requests for Valentine's Day submitted as soon as possible. The money for the Valentine's Day in Griswold Hall will be coming from the SGA fund. IAV BINGO will be held on Thursday, April 5th from 7-9:30 if rooms are available. Please let us know you will be absent no less than two hours before a meeting. You have a limited number of excused and unexcused absences.
