2. PUBLIC COMMENT*INFORMATION

Pat Anderson-Board of Regents has started looking into police consolidation on campuses more so up in the Northern part of Nevada. TMCC completely joined forces with the UNR Police Department as one unit, and WNC will go in that direction the first part of the New Year. GBC will participate up to a certain point; the Chief of Police does not think that we need police on campus and will leave security up Pat Anderson. The college is looking into updating the security camera systems and training for security.

President Linville-Professor Jung wanted SGA to spread word about an upcoming survey students will receive. SGA Officers have been asked to encourage students to please take the Noel-Levitz Students Satisfaction survey. The survey will be out on Monday, November 5, 2018.
