- 16. ELKO GAME ROOM INFORMATION
- President Linville led a discussion regarding Athletics utilizing the Game Room in Leonard Center. The Athletics needs a space to use and are looking at different spaces to use. Since the Game room is not utilized that much by students, they are looking at this space to use for offices. If this space is approved of then the students would lose this space. Senator Vera and Student Advocate Mendez would like to update and revitalize this space so students can still use it. So she asked everyone to think about this so in the future this subject maybe voted on. She also asked if there is question that anyone has to email Pat Anderson, Adriana Mendez, and President

Linville.

17. PUBLIC COMMENT

INFORMATION

Senator Marler- Apologized for being late.

Adriana Mendez- Gave an update on how the combined event that the SGA, BBVC Club, and Revitalization Committee put on went. They had pictures with Santa, the Grinch characters, and the Grinch Movie. The event turned out better than they had expected. The event was free and $1,750 was donated for the pictures, and all the pictures were emailed out. She also wanted to thank SGA for the funding for the event.

Pat Anderson- Informed that the Battle Born Veterans Club is looking at starting up at the Ely Center due to an advisor of the club moving over to Ely. So the club might be extend to other locations and be looking to SGA for help.
