DISCUSSION: Motion passed unanimously.

13. SENATOR REPORTS INFORMATION

Battle Mountain Senator – None.

Elko Senator – Senator Ruiz is asking students for their input on ideas for SGA; Senator Willis discusses her ideas for a Bingo Night to be held sometime next month.

Ely Senator – Jessi Sturges talks about her Like 4 a Slice event, and how they had some participants and had a teacher give out pizza in class following the same rules of liking to get a slice. She then talked about how the next day they did cookies, and they had no left overs. She then gives her best means of access on 10/18 since she will not be able to attend the meeting.

Pahrump Senator – None.

Winnemucca Senator – Pumpkin carving contest 10/21 – 10/26 pumpkins will be handed out and judging will be done 10/31 along with a raffle prize will be purchased next weeks Tuesday.

14. PUBLIC COMMENT INFORMATION

Secretary Davis discussed how for future Like 4 a Slice events they need to be more clear on the rules because they did not receive more followers just more likes on individual events. She then discussed the idea of creating a sign up sheet for set up and tear down of events to avoid having only one person set up, tear down, and run an event. She then asked everyone at all centers to make sure posters with social media and phone numbers information to be up to date and accurate. President Dodson then asked all officers to give their input for the game room during this time. All ideas were written down and taken into account while moving forward with this event. President Dodson then asks that she can have two officers to attend to voice theirs and their peers opinions on 10/15 in the Berg Hall conference room.

Meeting is adjourned at 11:51 a.m.
