5. PRESIDENT'S REPORT

INFORMATION

President Dempsey has been attending meetings for the NSA and the Board of Regents. The NSA has added more religious holidays to the semester's calendars due to Jewish students being denied the opportunity to honor their holidays. The NSA is also trying to add Election Day to the calendar to encourage voting.

She reminded officers about the Virtual Open Mic event and encouraged them to attend.

6. STUDENT ADVOCATE REPORT

INFORMATION

Student Advocate Garcia has been unable to order SGA sweatshirts due to low inventory. Custom Ink is currently looking for an alternative solution, but more than likely, the sweatshirts will not be shipped by the original goal of Christmas.

She reminded officers about the Virtual Open Mic event and encouraged them to attend. She asked if President Dempsey emailed the Zoom link. President Dempsey said that she had.

She said that if officers are planning events for Welcome Back Week that agenda requests should be completed by Monday, 12/07 to be put on the agenda for 12/11. She reminded officers that they should be socially distanced events.

There are two SGA meetings left for the semester: 12/11 and 12/18.
