12. LEADERSHIP TRAINING ACTIVITY

INFORMATION

This activity was facilitated by Vice President Sanchez. Designated officers took turns sharing what their groups had discussed earlier in the week regarding changes that could be made to better their GBC centers.

President Stamp said that the leadership activity on 12/17 will be postponed until SGA's first meeting of the spring semester in order to provide some relief to officers during finals week. Senator Ellifritz will lead this activity in the spring.

13. PUBLIC COMMENT

INFORMATION

Vice President Sibert wished everyone luck on their finals.

Ms. Anderson seconded this and congratulated graduating officers and invited them to return to SGA meetings as guests. She also said that a mock template has been created to go on the back of student ID cards with contact information for several crisis hotlines. If SGA wants to go forward with this endeavor and help to support it, the topic can be revisited in the spring, and Ms. Anderson can provide a template and more information then.

Secretary Stadlander invited everyone to attend her capstone presentation on Dec. 15th at 4:30 pm PST. She will email the Zoom link.
