12. LEADERSHIP ACTIVITIES, VISIONS & GOALS SPRING 2022

INFORMATION

President Stamp wanted to discuss the ways that leadership activities help SGA officers. Visions for the future look at bigger events. Senator Ellifritz mentioned discussing with other senators how their week went and other checkups. Ideas with an email group about how everyone's week was discussed to reach out to SGA Officers.

President Stamp has added that with the extra time this week he wanted to discuss what SGA Officers want to accomplish for the leadership activity and other goals they might have in mind for this semester.

- Vice President Sanchez wanted to find areas that need help and fix those areas with SGA.
- Secretary MacGregor's vision was to stay planned and ahead of items.
- Senator Ellifritz's goal was to get more people involved with SGA. A personal goal was to finish all classes needed this semester.
- Senator Gurr wanted to see the feedback that could be offered from other students.
- Senator Harlan noted that creating a community is much harder now with COVID. She wants to create that community within the guidelines.
- Senator Alqam found that it was difficult to actually communicate with other students. She found that SGA was a great passion to know other people from SGA.
- Senator Castillo wants to accomplish his own personal goals with his education.
- Senator Cole wanted to also stay on top of both work and school.
- Steven Theriault hopes that COVID calms down so that in person graduation can happen.

Ryan Hathaway went into detail about the character sheet that has been sent out to all of the SGA Officers. He described how to fill out the sheet and the main questions to follow (7, 6, 4, 11, 14, 17). He also added that this is to help get everyone to know each other better.

13. PUBLIC COMMENT

INFORMATION

Ryan Hathaway reminded students to email their favorite song to him so that he can create an SGA playlist.

Senator Gurr asked if the character sheet would be sent out. President Stamp noted that it was sent out with the Agenda but an additional email would be sent out with just the character sheet.
