Ryan Hathaway reminded students that this leadership activity is built on students and their passions in life. Sandro Castillo will be talking about mental health performance through health. During this conversation Sandro Castillo mentioned the following:

- There are different hormones that everyone needs including testosterone.
 - By promoting healthy testosterone people often can feel better.
- There are different long term things that people can do to promote a healthy lifestyle.
 - Sleeping a healthy amount can actually help produce the necessary hormones.
 - Using devices before bed can trick your brain into staying awake.
 - Eating healthy can be very important to promote a healthy lifestyle.
 - Sunlight is important to getting an important vitamin D.
- Exercise is a very important strategy for short term gains in feeling better and promoting what is needed.
- Avoiding caffeine especially when you feel like you need it is very important.

Ryan Hathaway also added that on a personal basis you should discuss health with your doctor or medical provider. This is because everyone is different and it is important to find what works best for you with your health.

17. PUBLIC COMMENT
