11. LEADERSHIP ACTIVITY - SCRUM PRESENTATION

INFORMATION

Senator Cole led the activity. The presentation is about SCRUM which is all about creating an organized work force or lifestyle. Senator Cole attended a class to become a SCRUM Master which provides her with the tools necessary to create a more organized event. It is meant to create a lightweight framework for complex work. It takes into account delivering products that work as wanted by those who might receive the product. The basis of this is to repeat the process to create the idea and solve the problems. The goal of SCRUM is to phase out the SCRUM Master to create a team that is self-sufficient that can accomplish the goals needed without them. This does not only apply to creating products for work but can apply to any lifestyle to establish a working organized environment. Senator Cole provided the resources to look more into SCRUM.

12. PUBLIC COMMENT
